A delegate of the Ale and Porter Brewers' Union No. 1 presided at the Food Producers' Section meeting last night.

meeting last night.

The resolution of the Miscellaneous Section approving of the Ballot Reform bill was indorsed last night by both the Food Producers' and the Metal-Workers' Sections of the Central Labor Union.

The Phonix Labor Club having been accused of engaging Subser's Harlam River Park for its picture, a delegate refute of the statement last night at the meeting of the Metal-Workers' Section by saying that the club would not give any picnic this season.

The only hearing upon the Ballot Reform bill will be at 13 A. to-morrow before Gov. Bill in Albany. Representatives of the different political organizations will be on hand in full force to argue for or against the measure. Peter H. Gatana, Secretary of the United Labor Party, will be among these to agree the bill.

for the beginning of the trial of Ann O'Delia Salomon and "Gen." Dis Debar on the inand is now set for Monday, June 4, before Judge Gildersleeve in Part 1 of the General Sessions.

This arrangement especially pleases Lawyer Townsend, counsel for the fat medium and the General, because the grand larceny charges will be held in abeyance and the pair will be tried on the indictment for conspiracy in plotting to defraud Lawyer Marsh of his property. He thinks the conspiracy charge particularly weak.

Bome interesting developments in the case are expected at the trial.
